How this book works

Every unit follows the same path, with the same colours all the way through

1 • Reading

A do now warm-up, texts with questions (Foundation and Higher), a Verb hunt, a word puzzle, translation into English and a cultural inquiry.

2 • Writing

Gap fill, translation into Spanish, your own writing, a Sentence Machine, Diego's grammar code with a Verb workout, and the speaking checklist. Each module has a focus tense (present, then preterite, near future, future, imperfect and conditional), and the Verb workout chip says

Focus

when it drills that tense or

Recall

when it brings back an earlier one.

3 • End of module

This module's challenge, a vocabulary page, The MELT Society recap, exam practice with model answers, then the answer key.

The colour code

Reading task

Sky blue. Read in Spanish, answer in English, translate into English.

Writing task

Coral. Gap fills, translation into Spanish and your own writing.

Grammar • Diego's grammar code

Bright green. One grammar rule per unit, linked to the specification.

Sentence Machine

Turquoise. Pick one chunk per column to build correct sentences fast.

From the speaking exam

Bubblegum pink. Questions you could be asked in the speaking exam, answerable with the language on that page.

Vocabulary

Lilac. Word banks and a vocabulary page in every module, with a line to cover as you revise.

Cultural inquiry

Sunshine yellow with polka dots. Real places, regional words, things to find out.

Exam practice

Ink navy and gold. Exam-style tasks with Grade 9 and Grade 7 models. Exam and revision tips are teal.

Cognate connection

Leaf green with grid lines. Spanish next to English, Italian, French and Portuguese, with a pattern rule.

Same word, different place

Amber. How Spain, Mexico, Argentina, Chile and Colombia say it.

Culture corner

Orange. Festivals, places and news, with a picture, timeline, quiz or debate.

Can I answer these?

Candy-cane pink stripes. A speaking checklist at the end of each unit.

F Foundation H Higher F/H both tiers. Foundation students: try the Higher tasks when you feel ready. Verbs are in bold in every text so you can spot the tense.
